PLANS ARE BEING MADE FOR REVIVAL MEETINGS

Arrangements Are Completed for Underwriting $6,000 Guarantee Fund.

That Atlanta will have, beginning on February 14, the largest series of revival meetings in the history of the south and one of the largest ever held in the world, was made certain yesterday at an enthusiastic meeting of evangelists and laymen in the Y. M. C. A.

The details in connection with underwriting the $6,000 guarantee fund necessary for the erection of the big tabernacle on Peachtree street, and the other expenses, were all put in satisfactory shape, and from this day work will go rapidly forward. The guarantee fund is in such shape that there is every reason to believe that it will be over-subscribed within the next few days.

Over a hundred leading ministers and laymen were present at the meeting, which was presided over by Dr. Marion Hull, general chairman of the movement. The first speaker was Rev. Dr. John E. White, pastor of the Second Baptist church, who said that Atlanta had already taken the commercial and professional leadership in the south and that the time had come when she must take the lead in religious things as well.

Marion Jackson told of the tremendous results of the Billy Sunday meetings now going on in Philadelphia; of how thousands of people were being converted and of how the metropolitan newspapers were giving space after page of space to such a religious awakening as no American city had known in fifty years.

W. W. Rock, of Australia, Mr. Alexander's secretary, was present at the meeting and urged upon Atlantians to have all details ready and organization perfected before the arrival of Mr. Chapman and Mr. Alexander in the city.

K. Orr made a ringing speech which put the final clinch certainly on the movement.

Among the big preliminary plans is the taking of a complete religious census of the city of Atlanta. In connection with this, the committee expects to use very largely the Sunday schools with the Sunday schools, such as the young people's societies, the organized Bible classes, the ladies' societies.

ARMSTRONG RECALLED AS ASSISTANT CHIEF

Macon Fire Department Official Had Been Reduced to the Ranks.

Macon, Ga., January 15.—(Special.) The civil service commission, which is in control of the police and fire departments in Macon, has announced the reduction of Victor Armstrong as assistant chief of the fire department and captain of No. 2 station. When the original list of appointments for the year were announced, L. A. Miller had been considered him and resigned from the department, thus leaving a vacancy. The commission then decided to put Captain Armstrong back in his old place.

Doing Good Work. Macon, Ga., January 15.—(Special.) The employment bureau being operated jointly by the Y. M. C. A. and the Macon Ministerial association has so far secured jobs for 12 men, and it is thought before two weeks have elapsed fully 100 more will have been placed in charge of the bureau and is now completing a list of the unemployed and of those who have positions to offer, and as soon as a man found for the particular kind of work it is desired to have done he and employer are brought in touch with each other.

Succeeds Here on Board. Macon, Ga., January 15.—(Special.) J. B. Riley, member of the board of aldermen and a prominent business man, has been elected a member of the Bibb county board of education, to succeed the late Henry Horne, whose death occurred a couple of weeks ago in Middle Georgia. His term of office is for life.

Reward Offered for Him. Macon, Ga., January 15.—(Special.) Rewards totaling $200 have been offered for the arrest of "Dubbie" Paulk, the negro boy who stabbed William F. Barnhart, son of a Macon policeman, to death, in East Macon three weeks ago. Fifty dollars of this sum will be paid by Sheriff Hicks, of Bibb county, and the remainder by Governor John M. Slaton. Absolutely no trace of the negro has been found.

Attacked by Thief. Macon, Ga., January 15.—(Special.) Lewis Pitts, a negro, walked into T. J. Carstairs's, wholesale house, on Poplar street, this afternoon, and, picking up a couple of boxes of cigars, attempted to leave with them. Mr. Carstairs grabbed hold of him, and before he realized what he had done the negro had knuckled him down and was on top of him beating him into insensibility. A clerk ran out on the sidewalk and summoned for the Rhine and with their assistance pulled the

ACTOR SAVED MORE OUT OF $10 SALARY THAN FROM $1,000

Raymond Hitchcock and Asa G. Candler, friends of long standing, were talking over various matters yesterday and it happened during the conversation that the question of personal expenditures arose. The noted comedian observed for the benefit of the Atlanta capitalist that he spent every penny of his weekly $1,000 today, whereas he managed to save $2 per week when he was making $10.

He showed a letter he had received yesterday containing a clipping from The Albany (N. Y.) Herald of thirty years ago exploiting the youthful Ray Hitchcock—then a shoe clerk and librarian in the First Presbyterian church—as the best man at the marriage of J. Frank Adams, a telegraph operator, to Miss May Fowler.

"And yet," he remarked, "I have a New Military Company. Macon, Ga., January 15.—(Special.) The Macon Guards, a new military company, has been organized in East Macon, this being the first machine gun company in the state and complete the Macon battalion. Boyce C. Miller has been elected captain; John B. Wilson, first lieutenant; John W. Pounce, first sergeant; Len R. Madding, quartermaster sergeant; Freeman C. Madding, sergeant; Ernest Butte, musician; W. T. Latham, Jr., artificer; and James W. Candler, clerk. Other non-commissioned officers have not yet been appointed. The company has 50 members enrolled.

Refrigerator Proves To Be Big Success. Tifton, Ga., January 15.—(Special.) A home-made refrigerator, being tried out by Hardman Wade, a Tift county farmer, offers great possibility for the farmer in the section who wants to cure his meat at home and be able to kill it at any time without what the weather. The refrigerator is 7 feet long, 5 feet wide and 6 feet high, with a 20-inch ice pan 24 feet, which has a capacity of 200 pounds of ice. It cost $25 to construct the refrigerator, which was made of 400 pounds of meat. The walls of the refrigerator are packed with sawdust and the opening, having been made so that it is nearly airtight as it could be. On December 15, 2,000 pounds of meat and 600 pounds of ice were placed in the refrigerator. The ice is now being replenished, lasting nearly a month.

It has been suggested that where one farmer hasn't enough meat to afford the expense of such a refrigerator, several can go in together and build one for common use.

FOUR NEGROES HANGED BY MOB AT MONTICELLO

Father, Son and Two Daughters Lynched by Party Who Overpowered Sheriff.

Monticello, Ga., January 15.—(Special.)—The town is quiet today after the most exciting night in its history. About 9 o'clock last night a mob, composed of one hundred unidentified persons, stormed Jasper county jail here, overpowered Sheriff Ezell, took the jail keys from him and taking four negro prisoners—a man, his two daughters and one son—to a pine tree half a mile distant from town, lynched them one at a time by hanging and riddling each body with bullets.

The victim of the mob—Dan Barber, his son, Jesse Barber, and his two daughters, Della and Ella—were arrested Wednesday night after they had roughly handled Chief of Police J. P. Williams, of Monticello.

Cause of the Trouble.
The chief of police went to Barber's home to raid a blind cigar, which he had been informed was operated there by Barber, who was a notorious gambler. The chief was alone. He found Barber, his son, his two daughters and five other negro men sitting around a table. The negroes pretended to submit to arrest, but a few minutes later, when they caught Williams off his guard, the members of Barber's family assaulted him. Dan Barber, armed with a pistol from his pocket, held his own pistol in the face of the chief and his two daughters. Dan Barber notified the chief that after their families had been hanged, they would kill him, and it is said he fired one or two shots past the officer's head.

A passing negro heard the shots and not knowing what was happening, rushed to the sheriff with the news that a shooting affair was in progress at Barber's home. Sheriff Ezell, who arrived there alone, when he walked into the door the negroes rushed at him and his son and two daughters were still beating the chief. Sheriff Ezell, with a pistol in hand, rounded up the gang and held them until he could send some deputies.

Feeling ran high here because of the outrageous treatment meted out to the chief by the negroes, who were notorious for their lawlessness, and the feeling culminated in the lynching Thursday night.

The Mob at the Jail.
Sheriff Ezell, Deputy D. C. Thompson and one or two other persons were in the sheriff's office at 10 o'clock Thursday night about 2 o'clock when the door was opened and a large body of masked men pushed in. Two or three of them grabbed the sheriff while others went through his pockets and took the jail keys. Other members of the mob held Deputy Thompson and the other persons in the sheriff's office at bay with drawn pistols. While the officers were detained by one part of the mob the other part went through the jail and took Barber, his son and daughters out of their cells. The five other negroes arrested at Barber's home, but who took no part in the assault on Chief Williams, were not taken out. Barber's daughters were hanged first. The son came third and Barber last. His body was left hanging on the three other bodies being piled just beneath his feet.

$7,000 to the several state mission boards having Sunday school men in the field.
$10,000 to the foreign mission board at Richmond, Va., for current work and Jackson Memorial fund.
$10,000 to the Woman's Missionary Union of Baltimore for women's training school building at Louisville, Ky.
$10,000 to the Southwestern Baptist Theological seminary at Fort Worth, Texas, for its women's training school.
Since its establishment the Sunday school board has given a total of $69,000 to denominational enterprises.

ANOTHER BRIGHT DAY ON WEATHER PROGRAM

Friday's fore morning was the worst Atlanta has seen since the weather bureau. And there is likely to be another such misty morning, although, just as the clouds break away with the coming sun and another beautiful spring-like day will be on hand.

The balmy temperature conflicting with the cold moisture in the soil is the cause for the density of the fog. Weather authorities. The pleasant weather, however, will continue through today and possibly tomorrow.

ASKS CONGRESS TO BACK PAN-AMERICAN MEETING

Administration Requests $50,000 to Entertain Guests From South America.

Washington, January 15.—Nearly all the American and South American republics having approved the plan for a Pan-American financial conference, the administration today formally asked congress for an appropriation of $50,000 to entertain its prospective guests. Secretary McAdoo, who suggested the conference, made the request in letters to Senator Stone and Representative Flood, chairman of the committee on foreign affairs, who already have personally approved the plan. Mr. McAdoo received a letter from Secretary Bryan, approved by President Wilson, in which the secretary of state announced that most of the countries had indicated interest in wanting the view that formal invitations would be accepted. Mr. Bryan outlined a proposed joint resolution authorizing the president to formally invite the finance minister and three representatives of the financial interest of each central and South American republic. The secretary of the treasury's letter also invited representative American bankers. The McAdoo letter urged the need of prompt action but also stated that the original plan for holding the conference was to be held in Philadelphia, and suggested that the date be left with the president. Mr. McAdoo estimated that the conference would be held to improve relations between the United States and the southern countries. "The unusual conditions prevailing throughout the world today," he wrote, "make the proposed meeting exceedingly timely, and should result in greatly improving and strengthening our relations with the commercial and social, with our neighboring republics in Central and South America."

Seeking Publicity.

Says Mrs. Sherman In Reply to Suit

In speaking of her accuser, Mrs. Arthur Joyce, Mrs. Hazel Sherman, of Philadelphia, observes in an answer to Mrs. Joyce's sensational petition that a woman can be the most wicked of any creature, and that women of the pretty young wife type "convince her of the truth in Kipling's assertion that the female of the species is more deadly than the male."

Mrs. Sherman, who is charged by Mrs. Joyce with having seduced the latter's husband to Atlanta in an effort to alienate his affections, filed an answer to Mrs. Joyce's petition for injunction yesterday. Her attorney, John T. Smith, asserted that Mrs. Joyce's legal move was but a step on the part of the husband to create publicity for himself. He is professionally a publicity expert, having come to Atlanta from the home of Mrs. Sherman, Philadelphia, where he was in the newspaper business.

Mrs. Sherman makes complete denial of the allegations that she seeks to alienate the affections of her husband. She says that she had lived in the same boarding house in Philadelphia with the Joyce, but that she was not intimate with them. She accuses Mrs. Joyce of being hysterical, deluded and dangerous. "For the safety of the public," she says, "she must be removed from the city."
